III. ORGANISATION OF THE COMPETITION

A. The competition shall be played in a maximum of three(3) phases:

- The Group Stage I
- The Group Stage II
- The Group Stage III

B. Group Stage I

- All registered teams will be incorporated into Group Stage I.
- All Group winners will be eligible for the Group Stage II;
- The best Runner-up teams in the groups of four (4) will be eligible for Group Stage II;

C. Group Stage II

- There will be a maximum of three groups of three teams;
- Stage II shall incorporate all qualified teams from Group Stage I.

D. Group Stage III

- There will be one Group of four (4) teams;
- The Group winner will qualify for the CONCACAF Competition.

IV. WITHDRAWALS

- A. Teams having entered the competition are obligated to play all their matches until they are eliminated. After entering the tournament, a team that fails to participate, shall be penalized as follows, except in unforeseen circumstances and cases of force majeure as determined by the CFU or CONCACAF Executive Committees.
- B. If a withdrawal takes place:
1. After entering the Tournament but before the date of the draw for the first round, a fine of US $5,000.00 is applied.
 2. On or after the date of the draw but before the date of the first match of the Tournament, a fine of US $7,500.00 is applied.
 3. Anytime during the Qualifying Tournament, a fine of US $10,000.00 is applied.
 4. Anytime after the completion of the qualifying Tournament but before the CONCACAF Championship, US $15,000.00.
 5. Depending on circumstances and the decision of the CFU- Executive Committees, a team withdrawing at any stage of the competition may be ordered to reimburse the host association and the CFU any expenses they may have incurred for the withdrawing team as a result of its proposed involvement in the competition and also pay compensation for any damages or losses arising from its withdrawal.
 6. Penalties specified herein will not be applied in cases of force majeure, as verified by the CFU or CONCACAF Executive Committees.
 7. The National Association of any penalized team shall be responsible for ensuring that specified sanctions are carried out and complied with.

V. THE CFU ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

- A. The Organizing Committee for the Men's U-20 Competition, appointed by the CFU Executive Committee, is responsible for the organization of the competition.
- B. The Organizing Committee may, if deemed necessary, establish a bureau and/or a sub-committee to deal with urgent matters. Any decision taken by the bureau or the sub-committee shall enter into force immediately but shall be subject to confirmation by the Executive Committee at its next meeting.
- C. The Organizing Committee shall, amongst other matters be responsible for:
 1. All Group Stages:
 - a. Imposing fines specifically provided for by these regulations.
 - b. Dealing with protests;
 - c. Appointing match commissioners and/or security officers;
 - d. Deciding which laboratories, if any, will carry out doping analyses;
 - e. Dealing with breaches of the doping regulations;
 - f. Settling cases of force majeure;
 - g. Deciding which matches, if any, will be subject to doping tests;
 2. Technical Matters:
 - a. Forming Groups;
 - b. Supervising general preparations, deciding the match system, the draws and forming groups;
 - c. After consultation with the Host Association, fixing the dates and venues for the matches;
 - d. Determining kick-off times;
 - e. Choosing the official football and the stipulated technical material;
- D. The Organizing Committee's decision shall be final.

VI. DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEE

- A. In cases of infringement of these Regulations, unsporting behaviour on the part of referees, participating Teams, their players, officers and/or directors, or the occurrence of any kind of unsavoury incident, the CFU Disciplinary Committee shall be empowered to:
1. Admonish, sanction, fine, suspend or disqualify players, referees, teams, team coaches or officials.
 2. Take action in accordance with FIFA's Disciplinary Measures against any person or National Association (s) which may violate the Tournament Regulations, the Laws of the Game or the rules of Fair Play.
 3. Sanction players, team officials, coaches, physicians and other Team or National selection officers who are deemed guilty of provocation.
 4. Prohibit violators from participating in a specific number of CFU organized tournaments in which they might otherwise have participated.
- B. Breach of regulations or unsporting behaviour on the part of participating National Associations or their officials, shall be reported by the Disciplinary Committee to the CFU Executive Committee for application of such sanctions as it may deem appropriate.
- C. When taking a decision, the Disciplinary Committee shall refer to the reports made by the referee, assistant referees and fourth official, match commissioner, referees' inspector, general coordinator, technical delegate, security officer and other CFU officials present. It may also refer to television and/or video recordings. They may be used as evidence but only as far as disciplinary aspects of the case being dealt with are concerned and shall not affect a referee's decision regarding facts connected with play.
- D. The Disciplinary Committee may convene a personal hearing and will decide the procedure to be followed.
- E. The following decisions of the Disciplinary Committee shall not be subject to appeal:
1. Cautions and censures imposed on players, referees, assistant referees, fourth officials, delegation officials, other persons or national associations.
 2. Suspensions from up to two matches or two months imposed on players, referees, assistant referees, fourth officials, delegation officials or other persons.
 3. Fines imposed on players, delegations, referees, assistance referees, fourth officials, delegation officials or other persons (not exceeding US $ 3,500.00) or on National Associations (not exceeding US $ 10,000.00)
 4. Appeals against any other decisions taken by the Disciplinary Committee may be lodged with the Appeal Committee.
- F. The appropriate Association under the provisions of its own Regulations shall punish any other offenses that may be committed during the course of the CFU Men's U-20 Tournament by Team officers, technicians or other personnel for Championships and Competitions. For this purpose, the Disciplinary Committee shall refer to the appropriate Association the referee's report of the match in question. The Association will, in turn, report back to the Disciplinary Committee on the resolution of the matter and any disciplinary action taken.

If a team does not report for a match, except in cases of force majeure recognized by the Organising Committee or if it refuses to continue to play or leaves the stadium before the end of the match, the team shall be considered to have forfeited the match. The match and three points shall be awarded to its opponent with a score of 3:0 or more.

- G. If, through the fault of any National Association, a match cannot take place or be played in its entirety, the Organizing Committee shall declare the match to be forfeited (awarding victory and the resultant three (3) points to the opposing team, as well as a score of 3:0, or more if the opposing team has already achieved a greater margin of victory and shall eliminate the guilty team from the competition).
- H. If the suspension of a match was the result of negligence on the part of the stadium authorities, the stadium in which an interrupted match is held may be suspended for the remaining games of the Men's U-20 Tournament.
- I. If a game is suspended due to a team (s) refusing to complete the match, it shall be ineligible to participate in the next two Men's U-20 Tournaments.
- J. Any other infringement of these Regulations, whether by players, referees, officials, coaches or officers that are punishable by economic sanctions shall be reported to the General Secretariat of the CFU for consideration by the Executive Committee.
- K. The appropriate Association thereof must pay all economic penalties assessed no later than sixty (60) days after notification. Unless otherwise specified, the total amount of all fines will accrue to the CFU.

VII. APPEAL COMMITTEE

- A. The Appeal Committee shall hear all appeals lodged against decisions passed by the Disciplinary Committee that are not final according to these regulations.
- B. The procedure to be applied by the Appeal Committee is defined in the FIFA Disciplinary Code.
- C. The Appeal Committee shall reach its decisions on the basis of the documents and other means of evidence contained in the Disciplinary Committee's file. However, the Appeal Committee may, if necessary, resort to further evidence (including television and video recordings etc.) which it considers relevant.
- D. Decisions pronounced by the Appeal Committee are final.

VIII. PROTESTS

- A. Protests subject to the following provisions are objections of any kind connected with matches organized in any phase of the CFU Men's U-20 Tournament.
- B. Protests shall be submitted, except if the following provisions stipulate a different procedure, in writing to the Match Commissioner or the CFU representative at the match, no later than two (2) hours after the games and followed up immediately with a written report, including the original protest, to be sent to the CFU's General Secretariat.
- C. Protests against the eligibility of players taking part in any matches shall be submitted in writing to the referee or the Match Commissioner not later than two (2) hours after the match in question and confirmed by letter to be sent to the CFU's General Secretariat within twenty-four (24) hours of the match in question.
- D. Protests against any incidents that occur during a match shall be directed to the referee by the team captain immediately after the disputed incident and before play has been resumed. The protest shall be confirmed in writing to the Match Commissioner or the CFU representative at the match by the head of the team delegation not after than two (2) hours after the match in question.
- E. Protests as to the state of the pitch, markings, the accessory equipment (goals etc) or the ball will be made to the Referee before the start of the match. If, in the opinion of the captain, the turf becomes unplayable during the match, the Captain of the team concerned shall immediately inform the Referee in the presence of the Captain of the opposing team.
- F. No protests may be made against the Referee's decisions on points of fact connected with play, such decisions being final.
- G. If a frivolous or irresponsible protest is lodged, the Organizing Committee responsible may impose a fine of USD $5,000.00 or the reimbursement of expenses caused by this protest, on the guilty team(s).
- H. The expenses which arise from a protest shall be charged to the CFU or the protesting party providing they have lost.
- I. National Associations may not bring disputes with CFU before a Court of Justice and they shall undertake to submit any such disputes without reservation to the jurisdiction of the competent authority of CFU, CONCACAF and FIFA.
- J. Once the winning teams of the CFU Men's U-20 Tournament have been proclaimed, any protest or complaint about the sports procedure followed during the competition shall be disregarded.

IX. MATCHES PLAYED ACCORDING TO THE LAWS OF THE GAME

- A. All matches will be played under the Laws of the Game as approved by the International Football Association Board and published by FIFA.
- B. In the case of any discrepancy in the interpretation of the Laws of the Game, the English text shall be authoritative.
- C. A maximum for fourteen (14) persons shall be allowed on the team bench, seven (7) officials and seven (7) substitutes. The names of these persons and their functions must be indicated on the relevant form provided by the "Fourth Official" prior to the start of the match.

X. DURATION, EXTRA TIME, PENALTY KICKS

- A. Each match shall last ninety (90) minutes, comprising two periods of forty-five (45) minutes with an interval of fifteen (15) minutes in between.
- B. Clocks in the stadium showing the amount of time played may run during the match provided that they are stopped at the end of normal playing time in each half. i.e., after forty –five (45) and ninety (90) minutes respectively. This stipulation shall also apply in the event of extra time being played (i.e. fifteen (15) minutes of each half).
- C. At the end of the two periods of normal playing time (45 and 90 minutes), the referee shall indicate to the fourth official, orally or by gesturing with his hands, the number of minutes that he has decided to allow for time lost. This applies also to the two periods of 15 minutes of extra time. Each allowance shall be announced to the public by the fourth official using the substitution cards or electronic display boards and by the public address announcer.

XI. FIELD OF PLAY, STADIA, BALLS

- A. The fields of play and the accessory equipment shall comply with the provisions stipulated in the Laws of the Game. The fields and the facilities shall be in optimum condition and are subject to approval by the Organizing Committee.
- B. As a general rule, matches may be played in stadia which are all-seated.
- C. The matches of the CFU Men's U-20 Tournament may be played on natural turf or artificial surfaces. Where artificial surfaces are used, the surface must meet the requirements of the FIFA Quality Concept for artificial turf or the International Artificial Turf Standards, unless specific dispensation is granted by the CFU.
- D. The Organizing Committee shall guarantee that the fields of play chosen for the Tournament comply with the Laws of the Game. They shall be subject to the approval of the Organizing Committee.
