ITU's Board of Trustees welcomes new leadership to assist in its phase of growth.

San Jose, CA - 2/18/2015: International Technological University (ITU) announced today that Dr. Gregory O'Brien has been appointed the new President of the university, effective February 18, 2015. Dr. O'Brien brings 45 years of higher education leadership to ITU, having previously served as Chancellor of the University of New Orleans for over 16 years, and as President of Argosy University. He succeeds Yau-Gen Chan, who will now be focusing his efforts on expanding ITU's international partnerships.

ITU's Board of Trustees said in a joint statement: "We would like to thank Yau-Gen Chan for all his hard work, and look forward to continuing our partnership through his new role at ITU. We are very excited to be welcoming Dr. O'Brien back to ITU. His expertise in academia will be a valuable tool for the university as we continue to build on the success of past years."

Dr. O'Brien aims to use his experience in academia to continue ITU's vision of providing academic excellence to aspiring professionals. Having previously consulted with the university's successful efforts to gain WASC accreditation, Dr. O'Brien is familiar with the mission and values that ITU has established over its 20 year history.

On the new appointment, Dr. O'Brien said: "I am honored that the Board of Trustees has asked me to serve as ITU's President. The university has a great future ahead of it, as we move forward as a unified community dedicated to ITU's mission, vision, and values."
